THANK YOU!

Once again this past June we had our Mass with the sacrament of anointing. There was a magnificent number in attendance. We deeply appreciate the good work of so many including the Knights of Columbus on a busy weekend for them for making this event a success.

Once again this year we were blessed by God's providence. The morning of our parish picnic was overcast and rainy but the sun broke through around 11:00 a.m. and never left us all afternoon. So many put their hard work into our picnic and we thank one and all for their good support.

NEW BOOKS IN OUR PARISH LIBRARY

The Catholic Source Book – A comprehensive collection of information gathered to help people of faith learn, renew, teach and live, the risen life of Jesus Christ in the Catholic Church.

Prayer services for Parishes - It provides prayer services for all occasions, seasons and programmes.

The New Anti Catholicism – The Author shines a light on anti-Catholic sentiment in American society and illuminates its causes, looking at gay and feminist anti-Catholicism, anti-Catholic rhetoric and imagery in the media and the anti-Catholicism of the academic world.

God Knows You’d Like a New Body – 12 Ways to befriend the one you’ve got. This inspiring, sensible book spells out not only why we should befriend our body but also practical ways to avoid the “perfection trap.”

Children’s Books: The Smile That Went Around The World and On the Day You Were Born.

HOSPITAL VISTING

We remind you that if a family member or friend is in the R.V.H. the parish makes regular visits more than once a week to the hospital. It is necessary however, that you let us know the name and if possible location of the patient. We would be most happy to visit them. Please do not presume that there is some automatic way that we discover who is in the hospital. It is required that the family contact the parish.

ALTAR SERVERS, LECTORS, COMMUNION MINISTERS AND MONEY COUNTERS

The new schedules for those without email addresses are available for pick-up in the hall this weekend and next. They are also posted on our parish website for your convenience.
